

MacKenzie Scott Likely Had a Prenup

Tuesday, October 4, 2022

Jennifer Brandt, chair of the firm's Family Law Group, was quoted in an article published by Business Insider discussing MacKenzie Scott's divorce. "In most cases when you have high net worth people, they do want to get, and are advised to get, a prenuptial agreement," said Jennifer. "If you have multiple properties, it may dictate where people live or what properties they may be using during an intervening period before the assets are distributed and maybe who pays for them."
