Ira Bodenstein will be the moderator for The National Association of Federal Equity Receivers' (NAFER) first Receiver's Huddle webinar of 2022, titled "Exotic and Unusual Receiver Motions." The panel will discuss exotic motion practice stories such as using a settlement procedures motion to recover millions of dollars for the receivership estate without having to file any complaints, using a motion for instructions to obtain relief which normally requires a separate proceeding, accomplishing a sale of millions of dollars of real estate that would appear to be under water because of competing secured creditor claims before having to sort out the legitimacy and priority of those secured claims, and more.
