

Jerry Goldfeder Selected to Receive New Democratic Dimensions 2024 Liberty Award

Tuesday, November 19, 2024

NEW YORK, November 19, 2024 — Jerry Goldfeder, a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Department, has been selected to receive the New Democratic Dimensions Liberty Award. This award recognizes the most notable New York City civic community members and is solely based on merit. Jerry will receive this award at the second annual NDD Liberty Awards Evening on December 10.

Jerry boasts a 40-year career concentrating on election law and voting rights. His extensive practice involves representing various high-profile candidates and elected officials, including mayors, governors, and several candidates for president of the United States. He has also provided legal counsel to members of the U.S. Congress, the New York State Legislature, New York's City Council, judiciary members, unions, not-for-profits, and various groups on local, state, and federal campaign finance law, lobbying compliance, and governmental procedures.

About New Democratic Dimensions
