

Litigation Leaders: Cozen O'Connor's Jim Heller on Building Trial-Ready Product Liability, White Collar and Class Action Teams

Monday, March 29, 2021

The American Lawyer profiled Jim Heller as part of its Litigation Leader series, which features the country's biggest firms' litigation practice leaders. "To me, what distinguishes us from other litigation departments is our reputation as trial attorneys—not just litigators. We have a deep bench of attorneys who have taken trials to verdicts," said Jim. "I am very comfortable stating that each of the attorneys in the litigation department is ready to try cases. This experience benefits our clients both in the defense verdicts obtained and in achieving advantageous settlements."

To read the full article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Class Actions
- Commercial Litigation
- Product Liability