

Miguel Alexander Pozo Reappointed to Minnesota Federal District Court Judicial Selection Committee

Friday, February 2, 2024

MINNEAPOLIS, February 2, 2024 — Cozen O'Connor is proud to announce that Miguel Alexander Pozo has been reappointed by U.S. Senators Amy Klobuchar (D-MN) and Tina Smith (D-MN) to their judicial selection committee. The committee assists the senators in recommending who should be appointed to fill a vacancy on Minnesota's federal district court. This vacancy was created due to Judge Wilhelmina Wright's decision to retire. As a member of the committee, Miguel will review applications, interview prospective candidates, and make recommendations on who should be appointed by President Joseph Biden.

Miguel is a seasoned and trusted business partner, trial lawyer, and compliance professional with nearly 30 years of experience. He uses his significant in-house experience, including as head of U.S. Litigation for Mercedes-Benz USA, to assist clients in taking calculated risks to advance their business objectives. Additionally, having served as a chief compliance officer in the health care industry, he brings a unique lens through which he views and helps clients mitigate enterprise-wide risk. Miguel has represented Fortune 500 corporations, nonprofits, and companies of all sizes in the health care, biopharmaceutical, automotive, and consumer/retail goods industries, to name a few.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has over 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor serves its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation